

Partnerships

The Nominated Tax Partner

According to the following statute TMA70 s12AA (2), a partnership is required to nominate a partner to file a partnership return for the purposes of Self-Assessment.

This partner is known as the nominated partner, but is also called the tax partner or representative partner.

For CIS purposes when CIS registration is applied for, the nominated partner has no legal status.